

A happy day

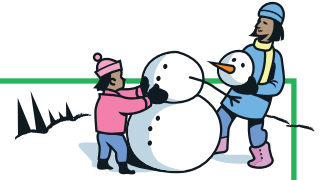

We went tobogganing in March. We took the school bus together with our teachers, classmates and some children.

The sun was shining, and the air was warm.

I was excited. It was the first time in my life that I tried sliding down a hill on the snow.

Again and again

There was a long snowy slope. I climbed up and slid down again and again—about ten times. It was interesting and great fun. Also, it was good exercise.

I saw people doing many things:

- tobogganing
- making a snowman
- making a snow angel
- having snowball fights

We took some pictures to remember the fun. After that, we took the school bus back to school.

Oh! What a happy day it was!

—Ling Lin, Edmonton

Photo: Miranda Bestman • Art: Guy Parsons