A funny story

One day, I wanted to go shopping. I had $400. I put the money in my bra. Then I washed my hands.

The money was missing!

When I went to leave the house, I looked, but I could not find the money. I looked everywhere in the house!

Everyone looked

I even asked my children to help me. We looked everywhere.

Two hours later, my kids said to me, “Mom, check your pockets.” I was so mad I told them, “I don’t have any pockets!”

Mystery solved

Then I remembered— I put the money in my bra. I started laughing! It took me half the day to find that money.
